The Beginning

In 1893, Charles J. Wort and his wife Luella homesteaded in Jackson Hole. In 1913, Charles bought 4 downtown Jackson lots for $25 each and built the Wort Livery Barn, boasting "good feed and proper attention to all animals." It was this site that would later become the Wort Hotel.

Meet Me at the Wort

After Charles' death in 1933, his sons John and Jess sold the family hunting and fishing lodges to realize their father's dream. The Wort Hotel opened in 1941, the Silver Dollar Bar shortly after in 1950.

Games of Chance

Gambling had been outlawed in Wyoming since 1901 but the law was widely ignored. It eventually went underground in the 1930s, the Wort moving their games from the Silver Dollar Bar to a basement room aptly named the 'Snakepit,' which of course required a password to enter.

The Wort Burns

At 6:57pm on August 5th, 1980, the Wort Hotel went up in flames. A bird's nest on the rooftop neon sign caught fire and burned through the entire second floor. In June 1981, the doors reopened starting a celebration so successful it lives on today as Old West Days.
