Jackson is a very dog-friendly town! The following is your guide for everything your four legged friend might need while in Jackson.

Need Supplies?

Jackson Hole has a few pet supply shops and if your dog is well-behaved, they are allowed to shop with you. Our favorite shops include:

- Teton Tails - they also have a self-serve dog washing station if your pup gets too dirty while exploring the outdoors.
- Big R Ranch & Home
- Pet Place Plus

Can I bring my dog to Yellowstone National Park and/or Grand Teton National Park?

Dogs are not allowed on trails, pathways and swimming in any park waters in both Grand Teton and Yellowstone National Park. However, they are allowed in the National Forests - Gros Ventre is a favorite.

Where can I leave my dog while I adventure?

Your dogs will be left in great hands whether it is for an hour or for the night. Our favorite day care/boarding options are DogJax and Homestead Hound.

Might your dog be sick?

Have no fear, Jackson is home to fantastic veterinarian care including the Animal Care Clinic and Spring Creek Animal Hospital.

Must-know tips for you and your dog:

- On Pathways, In Town: Dogs must be on leash.
- On Pathways, Out of Town: Off Leash, under voice control.
- Always scoop the poop! Trails with pet waste could lose their designation as a pet-friendly pathway or park.
- Always carry a leash, which helps protect your pet from dangerous wildlife and fast bicycles.
- Teach your dog to calmly exit your vehicle. Many trailheads have busy traffic and/or blind corners.
- If you encounter another user on the trail (biker, skier, jogger) please yield to the other user. Pull your dog off to the side of the trail in a heel position until the other user has passed.
- Never allow your dog to chase wildlife.
